A COLOSSUS IN THE SMALLEST SPACE.

This performance guarantor convinces with its large benefits in a small space. Thanks to its compactness, the CD 1316 fits itself ideally also into small office environments and is perfect for the home office. But do not be deceived by its size – the CD 1316 has huge functional versatility: printing, copying, scanning and faxing. Space-saving does not have to be at the cost of quality though as this small system demonstrates with pin sharp quality. All components have the added bonus of being economically efficient and environmentally friendly.

Additionally, the CD 1316 has an impressive performance of 16 A4 pages per minute when printing and copying. Higher paper weights, up to 163 g/m², foils and labels are easily managed with the single sheet feeder. Whether the task is black and white prints and copies, sending faxes or scanning in black and white and in colour – the CD 1316 is incredibly easy to use. One major plus: Installation is quick and easy meaning you can quickly take advantage of this flexible little all-rounder.
